SYNTHETIC DEMONSTRATION PUBLICATION

Donor Impact Evaluation Report

Uganda | Integrated Livelihoods

1,728 synthetic responses

Prepared by VoiceInsights Africa

Every Voice. Every Language. Every Insight.

Synthetic demonstration. Not official statistics.

Every number in this publication answers one question: what is actually happening with integrated livelihoods performance in Uganda, and for whom. The pattern that emerges is one of uneven progress, concentrated risk, and opportunities that remain genuinely actionable. The discipline behind this publication is traceability – synthetic evidence behind every finding, a named owner behind every recommendation, one internally consistent dataset behind every statistic.

Sample: 1728 synthetic responses – 91% response rate – 4 regions

63%. That is the outcome additionality signal recorded in Northern Livelihoods Cluster, and the headline figure understates the problem: disaggregated by group, rural women sit well below it. The clearest gap sits in Northern Livelihoods Cluster, concentrated among rural women. A twelve-month delay would let the gap compound into a harder, costlier problem.

Evidence: EVI-DON-001, EVI-DON-004 • Confidence 93%

What would it take to fix value for money? Start with Eastern Enterprise Cluster, where the signal sits at 64% and young adults carry most of the shortfall. The honest answer is sustained attention, not a single intervention. Eastern Enterprise Cluster shows the sharpest divide, where young adults carry the largest share of the gap. Left unaddressed for a year, the imbalance is likely to erode equity, delivery confidence and the durability of results.

Evidence: EVI-DON-002, EVI-DON-005 • Confidence 94%

The aggregate result conceals a material implementation divide. Lake Communities records a 65% signal for livelihood resilience; the shortfall is concentrated among persons with disabilities, where service continuity and confidence move together. Of every study area examined in Uganda, livelihood resilience shows up hardest there, and persons with disabilities feel it most. A year of inaction would turn a gap into a pattern that is far harder to reverse.

Evidence: EVI-DON-003, EVI-DON-006 • Confidence 89.5%

Two things are true at once about gendered benefit distribution. The national picture is improving, and Central Markets — where frontline workers report a 66% signal — is not improving fast enough to close the gap. Integrated livelihoods performance in Uganda looks stable in aggregate but splits sharply once gendered benefit distribution is disaggregated. Central Markets anchors the low end, and frontline workers bear most of that shortfall — a pattern that risks compounding without intervention within the year.

Evidence: EVI-DON-004, EVI-DON-007 — Confidence 90.5%

The strategic opportunity lies in the variation, not the average. At 67%, Northern Livelihoods Cluster's sustainability after exit signal shows where implementation can move quickly, while the experience of low-income households defines the safeguard that must accompany scale. The same gap that makes sustainability after exit a risk also makes it an opportunity: Northern Livelihoods Cluster could close most of the distance to the rest of Uganda within a year if action starts now, with the clearest gains reaching low-income households first.

Evidence: EVI-DON-005, EVI-DON-008 & Confidence 91.5%

Approve an adaptive results and learning window.

Strategic priority: CRITICAL

Evidence used: EVI-DON-001, EVI-DON-004

Rationale: 63%. That is the outcome additionality signal recorded in Northern Livelihoods Cluster, and the headline figure understates the problem: disaggregated by group, rural women sit well below it. The clearest gap sits in Northern Livelihoods Cluster, concentrated among rural women. A twelve-month delay would let the gap compound into a harder, costlier problem.

Expected benefit: Faster, better-evidenced integrated livelihoods decisions that donor leadership can act on with confidence.

Expected risk: Competing priorities crowding out sustained follow-through

Dependencies: Stable staffing through the delivery window; Cross-team delivery coordination; Confirmed budget release

Budget requirement: High â full business case and multi-year funding commitment required

Owner: Country Director / Programme Executive

Supporting organization: M&E, Finance, Safeguarding and Delivery Units

Timeline: 0â 90 days

Monitoring indicator: Quarterly-verified progress against the milestones agreed for this critical-tier decision (DEC-DON-01)

Success criteria: Verified evidence of at least 80% delivery against the agreed milestone plan

Management response: PENDING FORMAL MANAGEMENT RESPONSE

Follow-up: Assign accountable owner; Validate budget; Approve milestone plan; Review evidence quarterly

Reallocate financing toward high-additionality pathways.

Strategic priority: CRITICAL

Evidence used: EVI-DON-002, EVI-DON-005

Rationale: What would it take to fix value for money? Start with Eastern Enterprise Cluster, where the signal sits at 64% and young adults carry most of the shortfall. The honest answer is sustained attention, not a single intervention. Eastern Enterprise Cluster shows the sharpest divide, where young adults carry the largest share of the gap. Left unaddressed for a year, the imbalance is likely to erode equity, delivery confidence and the durability of results.

Expected benefit: Reduced variation in integrated livelihoods delivery and a stronger evidence base for the next planning cycle.

Expected risk: Fragmented accountability once implementation moves beyond the pilot stage

Dependencies: Timely data collection for the next reporting cycle; Stable staffing through the delivery window; Cross-team delivery coordination

Budget requirement: Medium – detailed costing and fiduciary review required

Owner: Country Director / Programme Executive

Supporting organization: M&E, Finance, Safeguarding and Delivery Units

Timeline: 3 – 12 months

Monitoring indicator: Number of agreed milestones for DEC-DON-02 confirmed complete at each quarterly review

Success criteria: At least 80% of milestones achieved with verified evidence

Management response: PENDING FORMAL MANAGEMENT RESPONSE

Follow-up: Assign accountable owner; Validate budget; Approve milestone plan; Review evidence quarterly

Introduce equity-weighted value-for-money reviews.

Strategic priority: HIGH

Evidence used: EVI-DON-003, EVI-DON-006

Rationale: The aggregate result conceals a material implementation divide. Lake Communities records a 65% signal for livelihood resilience; the shortfall is concentrated among persons with disabilities, where service continuity and confidence move together. Of every study area examined in Uganda, livelihood resilience shows up hardest there, and persons with disabilities feel it most. A year of inaction would turn a gap into a pattern that is far harder to reverse.

Expected benefit: A stronger, more defensible case for integrated livelihoods investment in the next planning cycle.

Expected risk: Execution capacity and coordination risk

Dependencies: Sign-off from the relevant oversight body; Timely data collection for the next reporting cycle; Stable staffing through the delivery window

Budget requirement: Low – absorbable within existing allocations, subject to confirmation

Success criteria: A majority of milestones achieved, each independently verified against real evidence

Management response: PENDING FORMAL MANAGEMENT RESPONSE

Follow-up: Assign accountable owner; Validate budget; Approve milestone plan; Review evidence quarterly

Fund partner transition and institutional ownership.

Strategic priority: HIGH

Evidence used: EVI-DON-004, EVI-DON-007

Rationale: Two things are true at once about gendered benefit distribution. The national picture is improving, and Central Markets – where frontline workers report a 66% signal – is not improving fast enough to close the gap. Integrated livelihoods performance in Uganda looks stable in aggregate but splits sharply once gendered benefit distribution is disaggregated. Central Markets anchors the low end, and frontline workers bear most of that shortfall – a pattern that risks compounding without intervention within the year.

Expected benefit: Improved equity, delivery confidence and measurable integrated livelihoods performance.

Expected risk: Insufficient ownership or delayed resourcing

Dependencies: Named executive sponsor; Validated operational baseline; Quarterly evidence review

Budget requirement: Low – deliverable inside the current operating budget with light validation

Owner: Country Director / Programme Executive

Supporting organization: M&E, Finance, Safeguarding and Delivery Units

Monitoring indicator: Share of the high-tier delivery plan confirmed complete each quarter (DEC-DON-04)

Success criteria: Milestone completion confirmed by evidence review, not self-reported progress

Management response: PENDING FORMAL MANAGEMENT RESPONSE

Follow-up: Assign accountable owner; Validate budget; Approve milestone plan; Review

Commission a pre-exit sustainability verification.

Strategic priority: MEDIUM

Evidence used: EVI-DON-005, EVI-DON-008

Rationale: The strategic opportunity lies in the variation, not the average. At 67%, Northern Livelihoods Cluster's sustainability after exit signal shows where implementation can move quickly, while the experience of low-income households defines the safeguard that must accompany scale. The same gap that makes sustainability after exit a risk also makes it an opportunity: Northern Livelihoods Cluster could close most of the distance to the rest of Uganda within a year if action starts now, with the clearest gains reaching low-income households first.

Expected benefit: The evidence points toward improved integrated livelihoods outcomes, though the size of the gain will depend on how consistently the action is resourced.

Expected risk: Likely â though not certain â erosion of momentum if the initial sponsor changes role

Dependencies: Validated operational baseline; Quarterly evidence review; Confirmed budget release

Budget requirement: Medium â likely fundable from existing lines, pending confirmation

Owner: Country Director / Programme Executive
